GRENADA & GRENADINES

Overview

Grenada & Grenadines remains one of the world's most requested yacht charter ecosystems - short legs between Grenada south coast, dense shore life around Port Louis Marina, Grenada, and berths that reward early planning. The challenge is not finding beauty; it is sequencing marinas, Tobago Cays horseshoe and tables like The Beach House so the week feels effortless. This is the broker's operational view of Grenada & Grenadines for the current season.

BEFORE YOU FLY

FAQ

What does it cost to charter a yacht in Grenada & Grenadines?

Yacht charter cost in Grenada & Grenadines depends on LOA, season and hull class. As an indicative band, crewed motor yachts often sit from the mid five-figures per week upward before APA (typically ~25-35% of base for fuel, berthing and provisions), VAT where applicable, and crew gratuity. We set an honest range before contract - not a fake nightly rate.

Which marina should we embark from in Grenada & Grenadines?

Port Louis Marina, Grenada is the most common embarkation for Grenada & Grenadines, with fallbacks when LOA or events block the preferred quay.

Can you charter a superyacht in Grenada & Grenadines?

Yes - superyacht charter in Grenada & Grenadines is available when berths and LOA fit. We shortlist hulls against Port Louis Marina, Grenada capacity and your itinerary, then hold peak slips before you fly.

How long should a yacht charter week in Grenada & Grenadines be?

A week yacht charter in Grenada & Grenadines is the standard unit - seven nights gives room for marina nights, day-anchors and one weather buffer. Day charter is available for shorter windows when the fleet allows.

How far ahead should we book berths in Grenada & Grenadines?

For peak season and event weeks around Grenada & Grenadines, 4-12 weeks is typical for larger yachts; shoulder season is more flexible. We open the berth conversation with the yacht shortlist.

What does APA usually cover on a Grenada & Grenadines charter?

Fuel, berthing, food and beverage, and most guest concierge extras. Tax context for Grenada & Grenadines: Grenada and St Vincent & the Grenadines are outside the EU; customs clearance between islands and cruising permits apply - no EU VAT. We set an indicative APA band before contract.
